CHICAGO'S MUST-SEE BUILDINGS

at other US cities with skyscrapers, and you'll see that Chicago is home to some of the tallest buildings in the country, partly thanks to the famous fire that destroyed much of central Chicago and the near north side in 1871. Resources poured¹ into the city as it began to rebuild, creating a unique opportunity for building many iconic Chicago skyscrapers, and ushering² in the steelframe³ "skyscraper era."

Whether you're passing through on your way elsewhere, on a day trip, or visiting from far away—welcome to Chicago!
